Chapter Business:
Alonzo discussed 2006 Budget – Dues for next year will be coming soon
Alonzo requested nominations for the Board Candidates and for the Arrangements Committee

Chapter Activities:

Excellence in Transportation Award – Alonzo informed the chapter of the award and encouraged members to nominate projects. A flier describing the award was available on the registration table.

Presentation:

The topic was "The Kabul to Kandahar Highway – Repaving 389 km of War Torn Highway in 207 days" presented by Forest Terrell, P.E., Vice president, Military Programs, Louis Berger Group, Inc.

Mr. Terrell presented the challenges and process of repaving 389 km of highway that was devastated by war in Afghanistan. Another interesting challenge is that the area is still in conflict. Coordination between the many contractors and agencies was also difficult.

Adjournment:
Alonzo announced the next meeting will be November 10, 2005 and adjourned the meeting. Details of the next meeting were not available.
